Prince Devon Rathenberg, the Emperor's Fox and chief of intelligence, has fallen in love with the Lady Tamar Falkeep—the third daughter of the least Duke in the Human Galactic Empire. But custom dictates they can never marry.

Then the unthinkable happens. In the insurrection that threatens to tear apart the Human Galactic Empire, Devon designs a plan to reveal the Empire's internal enemies. It's a plan of desperation that, by design, will result in the ultimate sacrifice: his own death. But before he dies, Devon is determined to win the heart of Lady Tamar and declare his love.

"The finest escape in literature is an escape into a real and inviting culture," asserts novelist L. D. ALFORD, whose stories uniquely weave past, present, and future cultures with fascinating technology.

L.D., an experimental test pilot with over 6000 hours in more than 60 different kinds of aircraft, also served in worldwide military operations as a member of three different operational combat squadrons. He earned a B.S. in Chemistry from Pacific Lutheran University, an M.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Boston University, and is a Ph.D. candidate in Aerospace Engineering at the University of Dayton. He is a graduate of Air War College, Air Command and Staff College, and the US Air Force Test Pilot School. He is widely traveled and has spent long periods in Europe and Central America. He's a featured writer for www.WingsoverKansas.com and the author of Centurion, Aegypt, and The Second Mission, as well as the other novels in The Chronicles of the Dragon and the Fox series: The End of Honor, Book One, and A Season of Honor, Book Three.
